Dear [insert name],

Abstract submission for EAPM 2024 Lausanne Conference is now open until January 28th, 2024!

I would like to invite you to attend this EAPM 2024 Lausanne Conference ‘INVESTIGATION, INNOVATION, INTEGRATION . TOWARDS

INTERDISCIPLINARITY AND TRANSLATIONAL RESEARCH‘ which will be held in-person in Lausanne on June 12-15, 2024.

Please have a look at our website here: www.eapm.eu.com/eapm24-welcome/

What is the conference about?

Main goal of the European Association of Psychosomatic Medicine is to strengthen the collaboration between researchers, practitioners and teachers in the field.

Our mission is to share, exchange and develop the insights of psychosomatic research and perspectives across national borders for the benefit of all patients.

The title of this conference is ‘INVESTIGATION, INNOVATION, INTEGRATION. TOWARDS INTERDISCIPLINARITY AND TRANSLATIONAL RESEARCH’: Learn about current psychosomatic research. Psychosomatic disorders play an important role in the increasingly complex developments of our globalised society and present us psychosomatic therapists, CL psychiatrists and psychotherapists in different countries with special challenges.

Meet colleagues from all over the world in the beautiful city of Lausanne in Switzerland.

At this 3 day conference, you will receive exclusive insights into the latest European psychosomatic research.
